INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

Below mentioned risks are the top 10 risk factors as per the RHP. For further details, see "Risk Factors" on page 32 of the RHP.

1. We have been issued debarment notices from our clients, of which we have challenged one debarment notice before the relevant court and on another we have been penalised by the relevant client. There can be no assurance that our actions before the relevant court will be successful in our favour. Further, we cannot assure you that similar orders will not be issued in future. Any such debarment related action may materially and adversely affect our cash flows, financial condition, reputation and results of operations.
2. NHAI issued an order dated July 25, 2025 against our Company, debarring our Company from undertaking new projects with NHAI. The said debarment order has been stayed by the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi. Continuance of said debarment order, may impact our business, and capital requirements affecting our ability to use funds from the Offer as per proposed schedule. Additionally, our Company has relied on certain assumptions to assess the impact of the said debarment order on business of our Company. In case these assumptions are found to be inaccurate, our assessment may not be correct, which may lead to rescheduling/delay in utilisation of funds raised from the Offer.
3. We have a large workforce deployed across workplaces and client premises, consequently we may be exposed to service-related claims and losses or employee disruptions that could have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.
4. Our businesses are manpower intensive and our inability to attract and retain skilled manpower could have an adverse impact on our growth, business and financial condition.
5. The Promoter of our Company Lt. Col. Randeep Hundal has carried out certain expenses of personal nature from the official credit card issued to him. Any recurrence of such instances may impact financials of our Company.
6. QIBs will be allocated equity shares not more than 1.00% of the Offer size, rest of the equity shares are proposed to be allocated to non-institutional investor and retail investors. A lower allocation to QIB may result in volatility in our shares.
7. Pricing pressure from clients, statutory payments and competitive bidding process may effect profit margin and ability to increase our prices, which in turn may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.
8. None of our Directors have prior experience in managing listed entities, which may require additional time for them to fully understand their roles and responsibilities. This could potentially affect our corporate governance standards, investor confidence, and operational performance.
9. Operational risks are present in our business as it includes providing services in different business environments. A failure to manage such risks including any errors, defects or disruption in our service or inability to meet expected or agreed service standards, could have an adverse impact on our business, cash flows, results of operations and financial condition. Further the nature of our business exposes us to additional public scrutiny.
10. Certain of our client contracts can be terminated by our clients without cause, which could negatively impact our revenue and profitability.
