Key justifications for holding levels

Sr. No.	Particulars	Assumptions
1.	Trade	The average receivable days over the last three fiscal years, FY 2023, FY 2024, and FY 2025, and for six months ended September 30, 2025 have been 101 days.

	Receivables & Unbilled receivables	Our company is currently engaged in business operations with the above-mentioned average credit limit, which is expected to continue at the same levels. Accordingly, as our Company intends to grow its customer base, the receivable days are expected to 130, 101 and 101 days for FY 2026, FY 2027 and FY 2028 respectively.
2.	Other financial assets	The average days for Other Financial Assets over the last three fiscal years, FY 2023, FY 2024 and FY 2025 and for six months ended September 30, 2025 have been 12 days. However, with increase in scale of operations and increase in tender based projects, including toll management activities, we will require incremental working capital for various security deposits and bank guarantees (additional margin over existing non-fund-based limits). Accordingly, we estimate other financial assets to be in the range of 19, 16 and 16 days for FY 2026, FY 2027 and FY 2028 respectively.
3.	Trade payables	The average Trade Payable days over the last three fiscal years, FY 2023, FY 2024 and FY 2025 and for six months ended September 30, 2025, has been 1 days. The same is expected to continue for FY 2026, FY 2027 and FY 2028
4.	Other current liabilities	The average Other current liabilities days over the last three fiscal years, FY 2023, FY 2024 and FY 2025 and for six months ended September 30, 2025 have been 32 days. As we are taking various necessary steps to reduce the outstanding expenses and also reduce delays in statutory remittances, we expect the Other Current Liabilities to be approximately 20 days for, FY 2026, FY 2027 and FY 2028.

The utilization of proceeds in a particular financial year may vary on the requirement of business. However, the overall utilization from Net Proceeds will remain within ₹ 1,190.00 million.
